

Charleston Disc Golf Club Course Sponsorship

The Charleston Disc Golf Club is a group of over 70 men and women who participate in the sport of disc golf at recreational and competitive professional levels. Disc golf is identical to ball golf except of course we don't use clubs and balls, we throw plastic discs similar to Frisbees. Park Circle in North Charleston is host of the Park Circle Disc Golf course, an 18-hole course that is played not only by members of our club, but several members of the community and surrounding areas of all ages. The Charleston Disc Golf Club is offering promotional opportunities to local businesses to become official course sponsors. Course sponsorship will help improve and maintain the current Park Circle course and to help players interested in the sport of disc golf to get interested in your business. There are currently five levels of sponsorship that we have to provide you with an option that suits your needs.
